

Lighting

Lighting in a film can be categorized into high key light and low key light. High key reflecting a bright mood and low key reflecting a darker mood. The example I have chosen is from IT, which is a recent horror film and uses low key light to reflect the tone.