

THE QUESTIONNAIRE

Lexi Heynes-

Gymnast, footballer and journalist

interviewed by Evie Walker

What's your favorite thing to do in your spare time?

I enjoy football as I'm a very sporty and active person. It gives me a sense of meaning and importance to be fit. I love going with friends as they are the most important people to me. I am a Entertainer.

What's the scariest thing that's ever happened to you?

When I was 7 years old, I used to do gymnastics and at my third competition, I fell off the beam and broke my leg. I remember being rushed to hospital and my mum crying. It was a traumatizing event, and it led to me not attending the gym properly for a full year, which negatively impacted my progress, and I fell behind the other girls in my group.

How many kids do you want and why?

I would love to have 3 children of any gender because I believe 3 is a magic number. I also grew up with two siblings and we all get on so well. I would love for my kids to relive the same love, and entertainment I did.

What is your favorite quality in yourself?

I like to think my best quality is my kindness as I have lots of respect for my friends and family and sometimes, I feel I am kind to people who have not been kind to me.

Do you believe in the afterlife?

I disagree with the teachings of the bible about the afterlife. However, I do believe there is something out there which we go to.

What is your favorite subject and why?

My favorite subject that I study at school is media because I am interested in studying it at university and one day become a journalist or an author. I am a suceeder and I like to believe I have lots of self-confidence.

Would you call yourself intelligent?

I believe I am emotionally intelligent because I read and understand people well and can always tell how someone is feeling at first glance. However, I lack academic intelligence.

Do you enjoy travelling?

Yes, I love travelling with my family especially as there is always so many new things to see and do and you are never bored. In addition, I would like to go travelling around Aisia on my gap year with my best friends olive and Izzi.
