

TOK exhibition examiner's comments

Example E

This is an example of a good exhibition. It was awarded a mark of 8/10.

The student has done a good job of identifying three objects and their real-world contexts. There are good links between the objects and the selected prompt, although the explanation does lack precision and clarity in places.